

Saskatchewan College of Podiatrists—Regulatory Bylaws

BYLAWS PURSUANT TO THE PROFESSIONAL CORPORATIONS ACT

Title

1. These bylaws may be cited as The College of Podiatrists Professional Corporation Bylaws.

Definitions

2. In these bylaws:

“college” means the Saskatchewan College of Podiatrists;

“member” means a member of the college;

“professional corporation” means a professional corporation within the meaning of The Professional Corporations Act;

“registrar” means the registrar of the college.

Approval for incorporation

- 3(1) A member who intends to incorporate a professional corporation for the provision in Saskatchewan of professional services to which The Podiatry Act relates shall first forward to the registrar the proposed articles of incorporation.
- (2) The registrar may provide his or her consent to an incorporation of a professional corporation if he or she is satisfied that:
 - (a) the proposed name of the corporation is not so similar to names of other professional corporations as to be misleading or confusing; and
 - (b) the professional corporation will meet the requirements of The Professional Corporations Act.

Proposed changes in corporate structure

- 4(1) A professional corporation shall notify the registrar in writing of any proposed change of name or of any proposed changes to its corporate structure, ownership or directors.
- (2) The registrar may provide his or her consent to a change in the name, corporate structure, ownership or directors of a professional corporation if he or she is satisfied that:

- (a) the proposed name of the corporation is not so similar to names of other professional corporations as to be misleading or confusing; and
- (b) the professional corporation will meet the requirements of The Professional Corporations Act.

Application for and renewal of permit

5(1) A member may apply to the college on behalf of a professional corporation for a permit pursuant to section 8 of The Professional Corporations Act by providing to the registrar the information required by that section together with an application fee of $150.

5(2) A member may apply to the college on behalf of a professional corporation for a renewal of a permit pursuant to subsection 8(5) of The Professional Corporations Act by providing to the registrar the information required by that subsection together with a renewal fee of $100.

Coming into force
